1st Grade Newsletter

Subject Highlights

Language Arts

We will be starting our first reading unit this month. We will use informational texts to learn all about how plants and animals grow and change. We will use these texts to learn all about the main idea and details of a text. We will also practice decoding and encoding words with short vowel patterns.

Social Studies

We will identify and discuss American symbols and traditions with Constitution Day and Patriots Day approaching.

Math

We will be adding and subtracting within 10. Students will learn how to count on and count backward. We will also start learning all about fact families and how they can help us add and subtract. Keep an eye out for our weekly math newsletter for more information!

Science

We will be learning all about plants and animals. We will learn all about apples - the life cycle, where they grow, what you can do with them, and so much more!
